Kicking off the Fall Term!

Welcome to What’s Up Western! Your student guide for the term. Be sure to check out our monthly events, ensuring you are up to date on all the happenings for the month.

Events on Campus

SEPT 6
Graduate Student Orientation Event
This event is a great opportunity for incoming graduate students to meet fellow students, faculty, and staff. You can expect workshops, networking opportunities, and an overview of resources available to graduate students.

SEPT 24
Graduate Medical Education Week
The Graduate Medical Education Week will feature several events, including seminars, workshops, and networking opportunities for graduate students in the medical field.

SEPT 29
National Day for Truth & Reconciliation
Join us in observing this important day. The event will feature discussions, workshops, and ceremonies aimed at promoting healing and understanding.

Campus Life

INSPIRING MINDS

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

CURRENT OPPORTUNITIES

LEARNING CORNER

WESTERN WELLNESS

DIVA FOR THE FUTURE

IMPORTANT DATES

Follow us on social

Hashtags found on the Health and Wellness Team to book a same-day crisis support. Immediate support, contact our Western Health and Wellness Team. All appointments for counseling support you! Whether you're to all Western students. This event will cover a range of topics including mental health awareness, resilience, and self-care. Attendees will also have the opportunity to connect with others and learn about local resources.

For the 2023-2024 academic year, the Graduate and Postdoctoral Award recipients have been announced. Among the awardees are Edward Wang, Maria Ahmed, Kamaldeen Mohammed, and Shahnaza Hamidullah. Each recipient has been recognized for their outstanding contributions and achievements in their respective fields.

The annual Tri-Agency Graduate Student Research Award has been awarded to Shahnaza Hamidullah. This award recognizes her exceptional research in the field of neuroscience.

If you're planning to attend the University Open House on September 14th, make sure to check out the Graduate Study Club. This event is a great opportunity to meet other graduate students and learn about the various resources available to you.

Don't forget to sign up for the 2023-2024 Tri-Agency Graduate Student Research Award. The application deadline is September 14th, so make sure to get your application in on time to be considered.

The Graduate Student Orientation Event is scheduled for September 6th. This is a great opportunity to meet fellow students and faculty and learn about the resources available to graduate students. Be sure to attend if you're a new student.

The Graduate Medical Education Week is taking place from September 24th to 30th. This week includes several events, such as seminars and workshops, aimed at providing students with valuable information and networking opportunities.

The National Day for Truth & Reconciliation is observed on September 29th. This event is dedicated to promoting healing and understanding, and will include discussions and ceremonies.